Online Games specialist Alchemic Dream, Inc is proud to announce its partnership with Flying Lab Software, the developers of the most anticipated pirate game in history: Pirates of the Burning Sea (POTBS).

Pirates of the Burning Sea will offer players the chance to enlist in the French, English, Spanish, or Pirate fleets fighting for dominance in the Caribbean of 1720. Whether you want to captain warships, smuggle goods as a freetrader, or pillage and plunder as pirates do best, Pirates of the Burning Sea will feature blistering naval combat, a PvP conquerable world, sophisticated and original missions, savage swashbuckling, and action for every play style.

Alchemic Dream's role on Pirates of the Burning Sea will consist of providing superior quality customer service and community building for the European market. The company's knowledge of MMOG customer support and logistics is now widely recognised in the industry. Alchemic Dream has provided this kind of service to other partners such as Codemasters (RF Online, Dungeons and Dragons Online™: Stormreach, Archlord, Lord of the Rings Online™: Shadows of Angmar™), Auran (Fury) and Linden Lab (Second Life).

Alchemic Dreams will use its experience in creating live events to enrich the experience for European players. CEO Aurélien Merville said, « Flying Lab has built a fantastic product and we're eager to provide a true interactive experience to the European players through live events and our complete range of multilingual customer services »
